POLISH WEDDINGS.

An interesting ceremony was performed in St. Joachim's church on Tuesday forenoon (last) when five Polish couples were united in marriage, according to the rites of the Roman Catholic church, of which they are members. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Culier, as the Polish priest who was expected did not arrive. Frank Shablow acted as interpreter. There was a considerable attendance of friends and neighbors of the contracting parties, chiefly from Rabbit Hill settlement; not all confined to the Polish nationality, as the Polish and Rumanian settlers are mingled here as they were in Galicia. The principal feature of the costumes of the brides was the head dresses, being caps and veils arrayed very beautifully with artificial flowers. One of the brides who had an especially fine head of hair, wore it flowing down her back. The dress of another was altogether oriental in its vivid coloring and strange pattern. Bright red shawls were very numerous and conspicuous among the spectators. After the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding parties adjourned to the south side where arrangements had been made for the wedding festivities in Polish style.

The names of the contracting parties are:

Andrew Kamula, (of Rabbit Hill) son of Michael Kamula and of Anna Matcheko and Cheska Sarneska, daughter of Vassell Sarneska and of Rosalia Vesloska.

Michael Safranov, (of Rabbit Hill) son of Dian Safranov and of Maria Paranka; and Venci Vazieshka, daughter of Vazil Vazieshka and of Clara Kordjaka.

Valenty Comaszewski, (of Sandy Lake) son of Jann Comaszewski and of Sophia Simon; and Jagniska Curka, daughter of Matchi Curka and of Maria Bulevitch.

Vavjin Calavski, (of Sandy Lake) son of John Calavski and of Anni Shopula; and Mary Mushinski, daughter of Vavjin Mushinski and of Anna (Maria).

Jan Barann, (Sandy Lake) son of Joseph Barann and of Agniska Iaki; and Majlojata Vansho, daughter of Michael Vansho, and of Marianna Karteshmah.

HOCKEY TOURNAMENT.

A large crowd attended the hockey match on Tuesday evening on the Thistle rink, Edmonton, between the Calgary fire brigade hockey team and the Shamrocks, of South Edmonton. The players were:

CALGARY.

Bras, Johnson, Forwards,
Bruce, Hunter, Cover points,
Orr, Benson, point,
Tarrant, goal.

SHAMROCKS.

Richards, R. Blain, Forwards,
Sutherland, Jackson, Cover points,
J. W. Blain, G. McIntyre, point,
Sharpley, goal.

Within a minute after play commenced Hunter, of the Calgary team, was knocked out by a blow over the left eye, supposed to be from a hockey stick. As the team had no spare man he was replaced by R. Hardisty.

The first goal was taken by Calgary in five minutes. The Shamrocks captured the next two; Calgary took one, and at half time the Shamrocks had four more to their credit.

Calgary took the first goal in the second half. Then the Shamrocks took five straight. Then Calgary took one; and the Shamrocks had two more to their credit when time was called, leaving them winners by 13 to 4.

C. W. Cross was referee. The Shamrocks are entitled to all credit for their victory. Calgary was strong on attack but weak in defence.

A dinner to the visitors at the Jasper House followed. The second game in the tournament for the North Alberta championship was played on Wednesday evening between the Thistles, Edmonton, and the fire brigade team, Calgary;

CALGARY.

Brae, Johnson, Forwards,
Bruce, Hunter, Cover points,
Orr, Benson, point,
Tarrant, goal.

THISTLES.

Benson, Campbell, Forwards,
McLeod, Hardisty, Cover points,
Hibbard, Cartier, point,
Aldridge, goal.

Owing to warm weather the ice was quite sloppy, but the play was vigorous. The Calgary men played strongly, but did not play as good a combination game as the Thistles. In the first half Edmonton scored 10. In the second half Edmonton scored three times. Then Calgary took one, Edmonton one. The total score was 15 Edmonton, 2 Calgary. Although the Calgary men were playing an uphill game they stuck to it manfully and showed no disposition to lose temper.

At the conclusion they were given three hearty cheers by the assemblage. There was a large attendance of spectators and much interest manifested.

The date of the final game of the series between the Thistles and Shamrocks has not yet been fixed. It is looked forward to with much interest.
